[Selected for the Chronicle.] Plain Talk.

Mrs. Swisshelm, of the Pittsburg Sat orday Visiter, goes for horsewhipping drunkards to reform them, and in answer to those who charge her with a want o womaniv sympathy, quotes the passage " whom the Lord leveth, he chastiseth." Of the tippling shops and their victims, she speaks after this fashion :]

"If we were a man-if we were a voter -we would vote down the doggeries. As we are women, it we had a husband, father, or brother, who was likely to become a victim to the serpent of the still, we would take their disease in time-in the first stages-and warn the dram-sellerwithin reach, not to encroach on our hearth, and if they persisted, we would burn down their establishments, with as clear a con science as we could build a fire to burn the June bugs and save our plums.
